It's from any towering vantage point on Mmamagwa Hill that the great, primal stillness of Africa knocks you for six. For down in the valley, to the north and south, east and west, lies the flattened and sweltering Mopane plains of Mashatu, 'Land of Giants'. For 360 degrees these sweeping wilds spread out, steadily and spartanly, but awesomely so, and merge into clean horizons. This land is lovelier than any imagining of it and to those who stand on Mmamagwa Hill, also resoundingly silent – for the 'Land of Giants' is an utterly unpeopled wilderness in eastern Botswana, at the confluence of the Limpopo and Shashe Rivers.

Mashatu, 'Land of Giants' takes its name from the locally-revered Mashatu tree and the giants that roam this prodigious land. As the largest private game reserve in southern Africa, Mashatu is, at 33 000 ha (75 000 acres), a fitting setting for the world's largest land mammal – the elephant; and the world's tallest mammal, the giraffe. Mashatu also provides a sanctuary to the world's largest antelope, the eland; the world's largest bird, the ostrich and of course, the world's largest flying bird: the noisy kori bustard. Add the lion, the king of the beasts and the iconic baobab and you have Africa's Big Seven. At over 700 individuals, one will also find Africa's largest elephant population on private land!

This special spot under the African sun proudly boasts an ecological diversity uncommon in other reserves. Complementing three members of the Big Five – leopard, lion and elephant – are some of the more surprising species, including the aardwolf, bat-eared fox, African wild cat, honey badger and black-backed jackal. True to form, Mashatu is also an ornithological paradise, and plays host to 350 bird species, including the enchanting lilac-breasted roller, whose plumage features no fewer than seven different shades of blue!

Set out, at dawn or dusk, on a 4x4 safari guided by dedicated and experienced Tswana rangers and trackers. Or brave an adventure safari that strays from the traditional format offered by other southern African lodges: go bushwhacking on foot, gallop through verdant Mopane plains on horseback or confront Mashatu's unforgiving terrain on a mountain bike.

Mashatu Main Camp exemplifies pure bushveld luxury and comfort, morphing harmoniously into the surrounding game-lands that throng with diverse wildlife.

Accommodation at Mashatu Main Camp includes 14 insect-proofed luxury suites, each with an ample and fully equipped en-suite bathroom. Sliding doors open onto the African bush where guests can sample the effervescent sights and sounds from their own suites. Two large beds complete well-appointed rooms. Mashatu Main Camp offers a stunning viewing deck directly off the bar, together with an elevated lounge overlooking the waterhole.

Nitani Private Game Reserve presents the quintessential African Safari experience. The perfect balance between pristine wilderness, high quality game viewing, luxurious and exclusive accommodations, and the passionate commitment of a family who have been part of this landscape for decades – Nitani is sure to appeal to the most discerning of travellers who seek something different, yet reminiscent of home.

Also located in the Northern Tuli Game Reserve (slightly further north of Mashatu) Nitani is part of an Africa of wide open savannahs, grand and majestic skies and of people who proudly share their country and culture with visitors from far and wide.

Safaris are exhilarating. Private and open vehicles head out into the wilds, and take guests into close contact with elephants, lion, leopard, hyena, jackal, and antelope species a-plenty. Twitchers will find an abundant and impressive menu of birdlife.

Within the camp (raised on stilts in the unspoiled bush), the experience is a sensory one. From enjoyment of cordon-bleu cooking at the hands of their talented chef, to the quiet solitude and rejuvenating treatments on offer at the spa, one is guaranteed to leave the reserve a new person.

Each of the five suites at Nitani is lavish. Mahogany woods, natural fabrics, indulgent finishes and romantic colors merge to present the seat of indulgent luxury in the most natural of environments. Permanent waterholes in the direct vicinity of the camp means that animals are invariably viewed from the suites themselves.

Each suite is air conditioned with a stunning bathroom en-suite. Relax in a bubble bath with a glass of champagne as you absorb the peaceful ambience of the bush surrounds. Or head outdoors to lounge at the private rock pool that flanks each of the rooms. These shaded havens have been specifically created with solitude in mind – an indulgent midnight dip under the starry sky is highly recommended!

Join the Pinchen Family on a Safari of indulgence, appreciation, invigoration and excitement – food for the soul.
